

MAIN HIGHLIGHTS OF THIS ROUTE:

Māori carvings

3

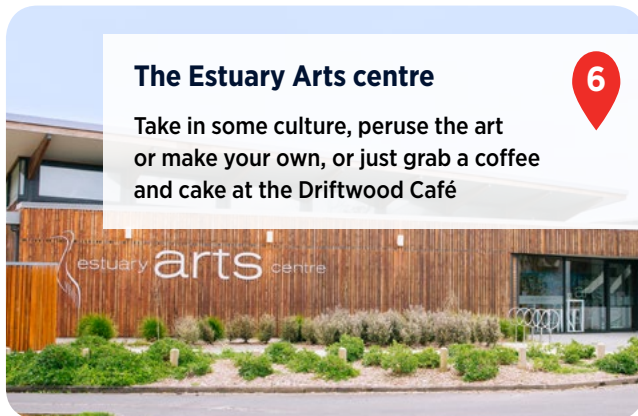

Māori carvings on the path illustrate the estuary's cultural and historical significance. They represent the various hapū of the Kaipara Harbour who travelled to their traditional fishing grounds in the Orewa Estuary to collect seafood.

Skate park

4

Orewa Skate Park is one of the best designed skate parks in New Zealand and well used by skateboarders, scooters and bikers of all ages and abilities.

The Estuary Arts centre

6

Take in some culture, peruse the art or make your own, or just grab a coffee and cake at the Driftwood Café

Outdoor gym

7

Work off a meal or icecream from one of the many cafés in Orewa at the Lions' Free Outdoor Gym.

Orewa Surf Lifesaving Club

8

On Sunday mornings catch all the action as the Orewa Surf Club head out for their training. Sit and watch kite surfers from the beach side café, or head to the big park to let the kids blow off some steam.

Orewa Shops

10

Fish 'n' chips on golden sands, cafés, restaurants and parks overlooking the water, bike hire and water sports, Orewa has it all.

OREWA ESTUARY

Te Ara Tahuna Pathway 7.5km

45mins

Te Ara Tahuna Pathway at Orewa Estuary is a beautiful ride along the water's edge and through parks and bush trails with plenty of birds and plants to try and spot. It's also excellent for people new to cycling, or riding with children on bikes or scooters. The path features tributes to the estuary's past as a significant food gathering place for Maori. It makes for a great day out, especially if combined with time at the beach and shops.
