

MAIN HIGHLIGHTS OF THIS ROUTE:

1

Kauri point reserve

An off-leash area for dogs, Kauri point reserve is a great place for some fun with your pets, whilst enjoying the view of the Pahurehure inlet.

2

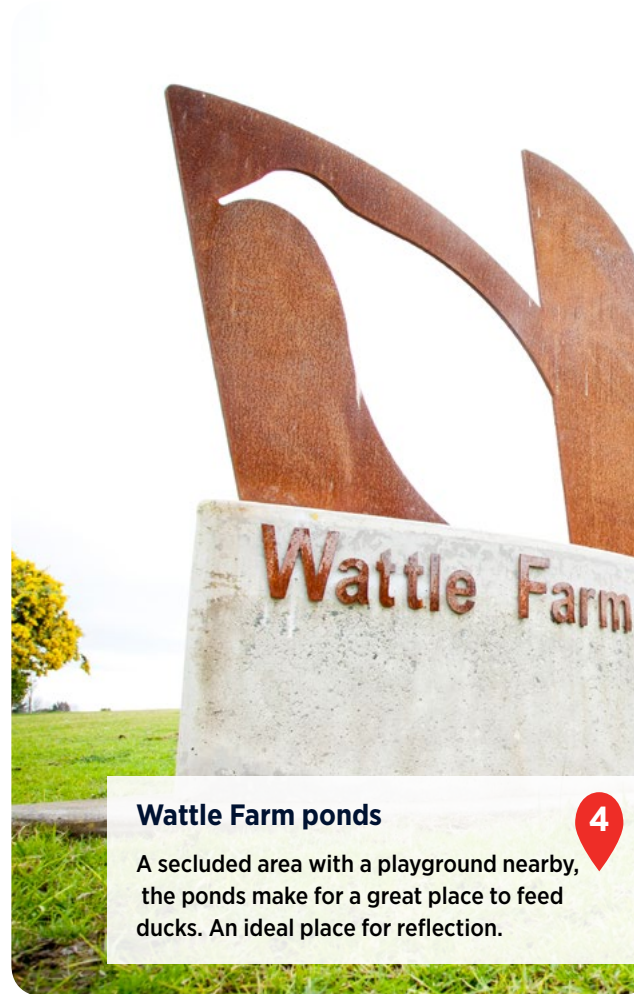

St Annes Foreshore

Overlooking the Pahurehure inlet, this spot is a great place to have a seat and enjoy the view. A great location for a picnic on a sunny day.

3

Wattle Downs golf course

The 18-hole golf course located at the heart of Wattle Downs is a great place to get your swing on! Accompanied by a golf shop and eatery, enjoy a succulent meal after your round.

4

Wattle Farm ponds

A secluded area with a playground nearby, the ponds make for a great place to feed ducks. An ideal place for reflection.

SOUTH AUCKLAND BIKE RIDE

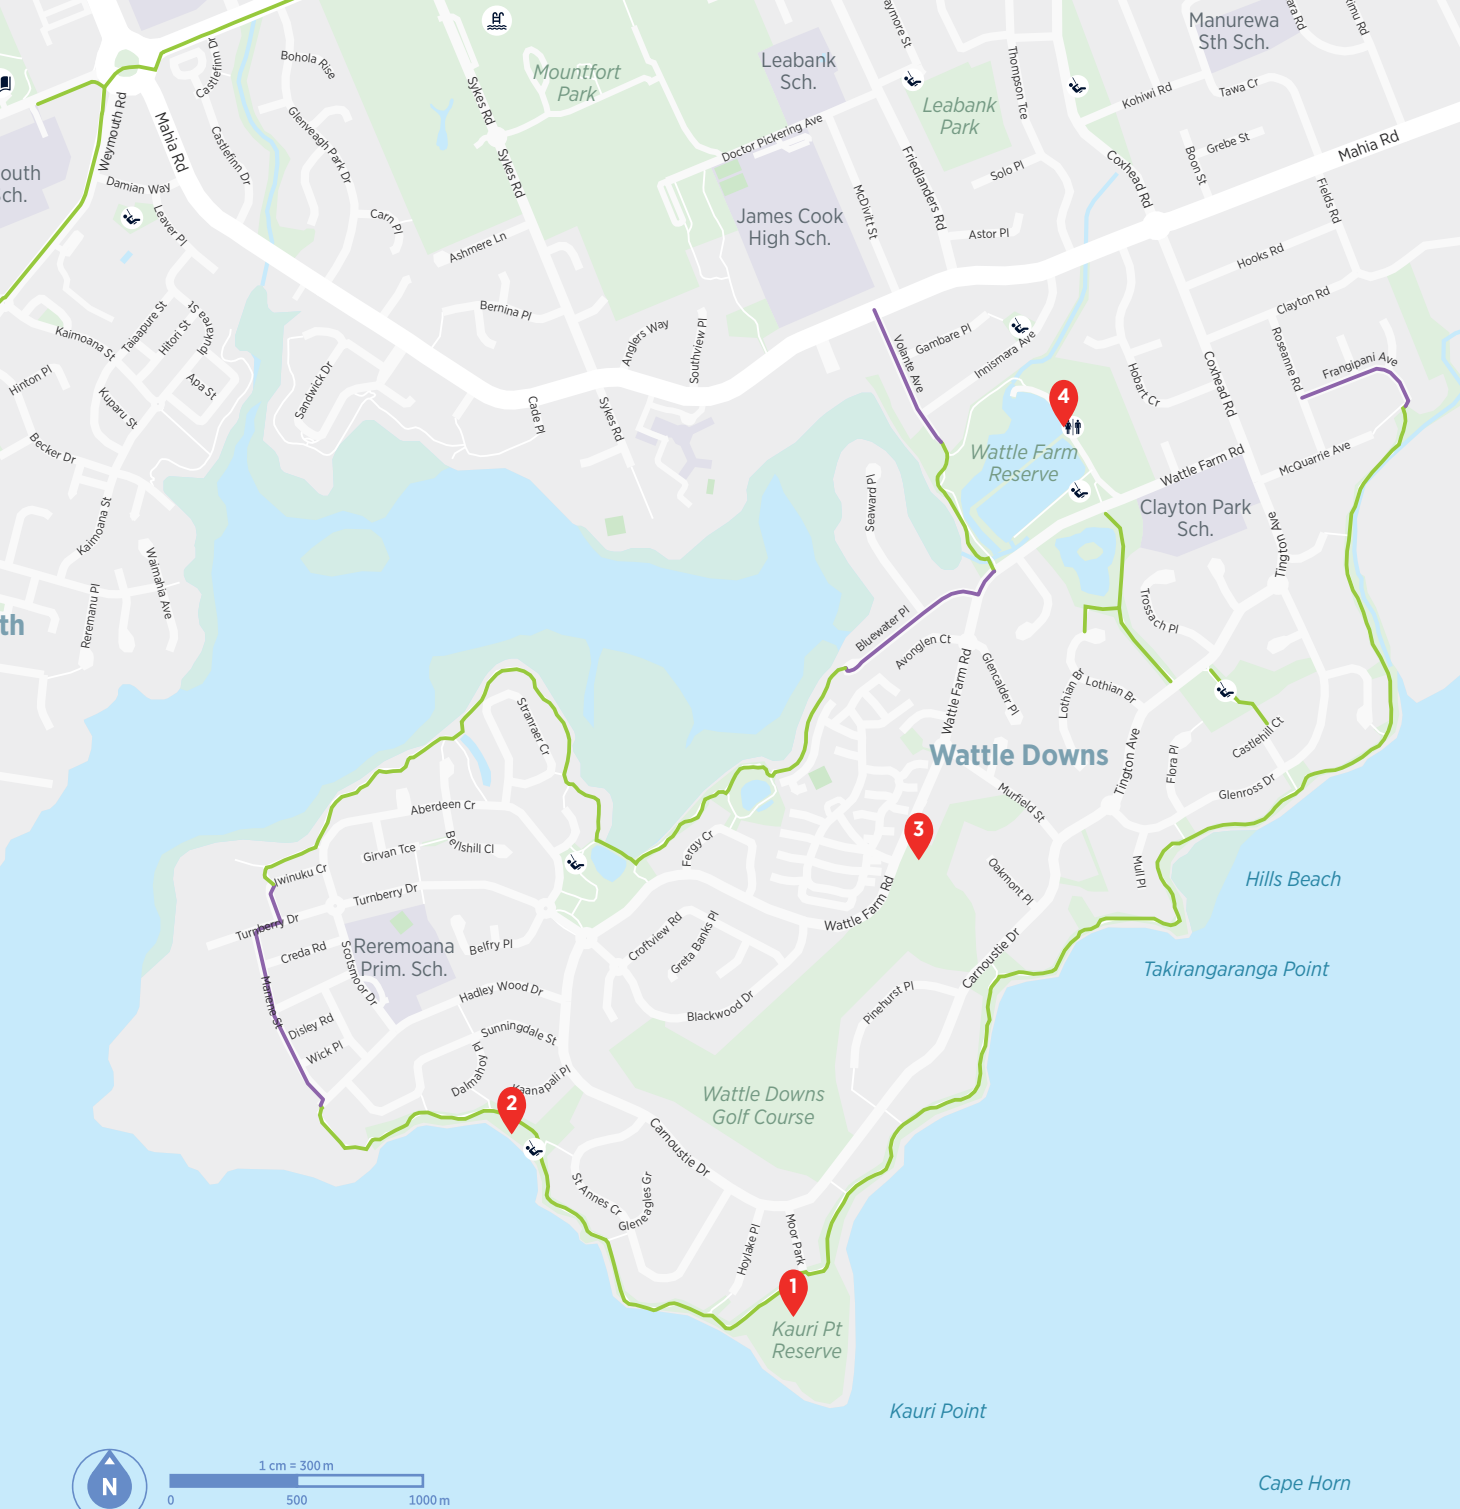

WATTLE DOWNS

40 mins
↗ 7km

The path follows the coast around the edge of Wattle Downs peninsula, with beautiful coastal views.

WATTLEDOWNS

Wattle Downs North Path	 2km	 one way
Wattle Downs South Path	 4km	 15mins
		 20mins

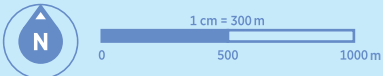

A peaceful ride that takes you around a picturesque part of the Manukau Harbour coastline. The ride hugs the shoreline and has many seats and picnic tables to catch your breath or admire the view and spot the wildlife including the tōrea (oystercatcher) and the white-faced heron. There are opportunities to reach the water too, as well as playgrounds along the way. The ride is in two parts with a small on-road section of about 800m on quiet streets joining them together.
