NOTE: Mooring sites are transferable at the discretion of Auckland Transport. The mooring owner will transfer all their interest in the site, including chain and unexpired rental period. It is the responsibility of the current owner to ensure the transfer form is sent to Auckland Transport to avoid loss of documents. The transfer fee is the responsibility of the current owner. Before purchasing a mooring, it is advisable to check with the Harbourmaster's Office to ensure the vessel is suitable for mooring site. The sale of the mooring hardware should reflect a fair market value and not exceed the value of a new mooring.
