

Opanuku Stream Path SCAVENGER HUNT

The Opanuku Stream Path meanders through lush native bush alongside the Opanuku Stream. This path stretches 3km from Corban's Estate to Henderson Valley Road, and features an interesting mix of ecological, cultural and historic features along its route. As the route runs through Henderson Park, it is suitable for all users and is great for picnics and play.

A sculpture near the Pacifica Arts Centre represents what water-based animal traditionally used as Kai (food)?

A memorial stone near the bridge commemorates Alfred Roke, who was he?

Henderson Park is home to Aoteroa's only native land mammal, the...

What is the name of the popular sport played at Henderson Park involving frisbees?

Signage at the Te Pa Harakeke O te iwi area tells us that harakeke (flax) was traditionally used to make a number of items, can you list 2?

Now a host to art & culture what product is the Corban Estate historically known to produce until 1975?

Featuring blue feathers and a bright red beak, the Opanuku Stream is home to what native bird?

Approximately halfway along the path, the Opanuku Path crosses Border Road at the point it becomes

.....
Drive.

