

Waterfront wonders

Cycle scenic boardwalks to the city's vibrant waterfront

Enjoy a family-friendly ride along the Westhaven Boardwalk, with stunning views of the harbour. Pause at Silo Park for maritime-themed play. Continue to the Viaduct to explore local eateries and unwind at Karanga Plaza—soaking in the waterfront sights or taking a dip in the newly-opened harbour pool!

Discover an urban oasis

Te Auanunga Path, an Oakley Creek adventure

Ride alongside one of our longest urban streams, Te Auanunga (Oakley Creek), a natural gem in the heart of the city. Enjoy riding beneath a canopy of established bush, spotting native birds and eels. With playgrounds and pump tracks along the route, there's plenty to explore.

Te Ara i Whiti and beyond

From the iconically pink Te Ara i Whiti to the sea

Start your ride on Te Ara i Whiti, the vibrant pink cycleway, and take in the city's unique views. Follow the City Centre Loop to the Downtown Ferry Terminal, where you can hop on a scenic ferry across the harbour or unwind with a bite to eat in the Viaduct. The city centre is yours to explore.

Types of paths

Ara paihikara
Cycle path

People cycling are separated from motor vehicles by physical barriers such as planters, kerbs or bollards.

Ara ngātai
Shared path

People cycling share wide paths with people walking, running and other active movement. Paths are raised or away from motor vehicles.

Hononga ā-huarahi
